BlueHighways TV Marks 10th Anniversary of September 11
With Full Day Tribute

Hendersonville, TN - BlueHighways TV (BHTV), an independent multi-platform HD network that explores the people, stories, traditions and music of America, today announced that it will feature a special day-long tribute to mark the 10th anniversary of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks.

BHTV will suspend all commercials on September 11th, and present a memorial honoring the names of the victims who perished. The network will also highlight remembrances of that day from viewers.

"As the tenth anniversary of the September 11th attacks draws near, BlueHighways TV felt it was important to offer a tribute to everyone affected by this tragic event," said Stan Hitchcock, BlueHighways TV CEO. "It is important to mark this day in an artful, poignant and respectful way, with honor, remembrances and prayers."
